Nowadays, people become more conscious of cultural products they consume, including theatre performances. That's why I consider it really important to give my review on one of William Shakespeare's plays, which has recently been performed in our local theatre - "Romeo and Juliet".

This performance tells ^{Present Simple} us about heart touching but tragic story of forbidden love. Young Romeo and Juliet werent ^{Past Simple} meant to be together, because their families were enemy clans. Nevertheless, once they met each other, it was true love from the first sight. Unfortunately, their family members did everything possible to separate them. The consequence of these actions turned into fatal misunderstanding between two naive but passionate lovers, which led to death of both Romeo and Juliet.

In short, actors did an amazing job to demonstrate events of this great play. Costumes and decorations were a cherry on top of this performance, as they accurately portray the romantic atmosphere of Verona town.

To sum up, Shakespeare's tragedy "Romeo and Juliet" is rightfully considered a legendary piece of art. If you have a chance, I highly recommend to see this play.
